2017-2018 Year in Review

Message from Director—Eugenia Ngo-Seidel, MD, MPH

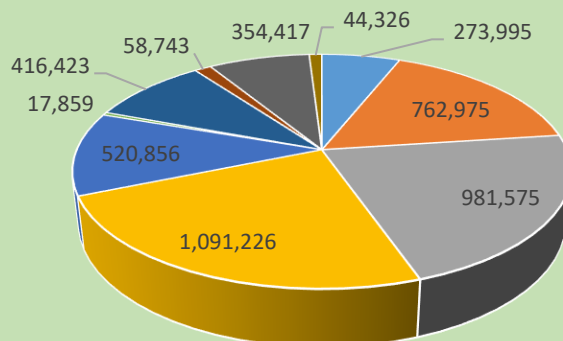

Our mission is to protect, promote and improve the health of all people in Florida through integrated state, county & community efforts. In addition to core public health services, we work on upstream factors that impact the achievement of optimal health for everyone who lives in or visits Nassau County.

2017—2018 Highlights

The Florida Department of Health Environmental Health Division in Nassau County (NCHD-EH) conducted a countywide environmental health assessment called PACE EH (Protocol for Assessing Community Excellence in Environmental Health) to improve health in the Evergreen community of Nassau County. PACE EH involves the community to evaluate local environmental health issues and set local priorities for action. The top three environmental health issues in Evergreen were identified as well as the PACE EH action plan implementation.

The Department of Health in Nassau County has been recognized by the National Association of County and City Health Officials (NACCHO) for a third consecutive time for its ability to plan for, respond to, and recover from public health emergencies. FDOH-Nassau in part of a cohort of more than 450 local Health Departments that have been distinguished for excellence in preparedness through Project Public Health Ready a unique partnership between NACCHO and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC).
